Keeping you safe and well

At Dogs Trust we're committed to making volunteering accessible for everyone but due to the nature of our work, some activities and locations may be difficult for some people. We'd like to make sure we could support you so we'll ask if there is any support or adjustments you would need when we have an initial chat with you. If you require any support to attend an initial chat, please tick this box and we'll follow this up with you. Anything you tell us will be strictly confidential.

Rehabilitation of offenders' act 1974

Do you have unspent criminal convictions? Yes ☐ No ☐

Having an unspent criminal conviction will not automatically mean you can't volunteer with us, however we are unable to accept anyone with a conviction for any offence involving animals. We will discuss your unspent conviction with you should you be invited for an initial chat.

References

Please provide details of a referee and ensure you have their permission for Dogs Trust to contact them. Referees could include a previous employer, college/school tutor, a previous volunteer manager, friend or someone who holds a position of responsibility in the community. Referees should have known you for at least 6 months. We cannot accept family members, partners or people you live with as referees.
